Norwegian-Russian Scholarship Scheme

2022-2023

This announcement of scholarships is based on the Agreement between the Norwegian Ministry of Education and Research and the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation, dated 27th April 2010.

Norwegian scholarship schemes are normally closely tied to institutional collaboration, preferably with strong linkage between cooperation in research and education. Since the Ministry of Education and Research cannot instruct the institutions to accept a candidate within a specific field, this scheme is based on pre-agreements with defined institutions. The institutions retain their right not to accept a specific candidate.

A total of 30 student grants are available annually: 15 within Norwegian language and literature, 15 within other subjects. The grants can be awarded to students and academic staff at Russian institutions of higher education for one or two semesters.

The scholarship is granted to Russian students¹ for the purpose of studying in Norway and cannot fund exchange stays to other countries.

Students should be enrolled in courses equivalent to 30 ECTS each semester².

Please note that it is not possible to extend the duration of the grant once the grant has been awarded.

Grants are offered at the following Norwegian higher education institutions:

- UiT -The Arctic University of Norway
- University of Bergen
- Molde University College – Specialized University in Logistics
- Nord University
- Norwegian University of Science and Technology
- University of South-Eastern Norway
- University of Stavanger
- Volda University College

The Norwegian Directorate for Higher Education and Skills (HK-dir) reserves the right to adjust the Scholarship Programme according to the Covid-19 situation.

¹ To be eligible the applicant must be a holder of Russian citizenship

² This does not apply to the summer schools

Norwegian language and literature

The Kingdom of Norway will offer up to 15 grants annually. The grants can also be awarded to lecturers of Norwegian language and literature at Russian institutions of higher education.

UiT – The Arctic University of Norway

Applicants who have studied Norwegian full time for at least one year and have achieved level II (Trinn 2/B1) may apply for Norwegian language course Trinn 3 (B2/C1) taught at campus Tromsø. Course codes: NOR-0035 and NOR-0036.

The course gives 20 ECTS, which is not a full-time study. Applicants must therefore choose an additional course offered by the same faculty, e.g., a course within history, political science or related to Arctic issues corresponding to 10 ECTS.

The students will need to document their level of Norwegian language proficiency in one of the following ways:

Documented level of Norwegian equivalent to level II. Accepted documentation of level of knowledge is:

- Level II (Trinn 2/B1) examination in Norwegian for foreign students at Norwegian universities
- Documentation of other proof of Norwegian language skills on a similar level (Trinn 2/B1)

Final decision about admission to the Norwegian language course will be made after an interview of the applicant.

Academic requirements (obligatory):

- Minimum 1 year of completed studies in academic subjects at university level documented by an official transcript of records.
- All students must meet the English language requirement defined by NOKUT: https://en.uit.no/education/art?p_document_id=743590
- Course selection form (Learning Agreement for non-Erasmus+ programmes and scholarships – can be downloaded from UiT homepage) approved by the home university

Volda University College

Applicants who are interested in learning Norwegian language for preferably one year may apply for the course NIS – Norwegian Language Course. It is both possible to start at beginner's level (from August) or advanced level (from January). The one-year course aims to give students the knowledge and skills necessary for studies at Norwegian colleges and universities. The emphasis is on giving students good general proficiency in the Norwegian language. The course also aims to help students adapt to the Norwegian society.

The Norwegian course is at undergraduate level and is split in two courses of 30 ECTS credits each (a total of 60 ECTS). See more information in the Programme description and course descriptions for NIS101 \(autumn semester\) and NIS102 \(spring semester\).

Academic requirements (obligatory):

- Minimum 1 year of completed studies in academic subjects at university level documented by an official transcript of records.
- A good command of English, level B2 in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
- Course selection form (Learning Agreement) approved by the home university

Practical information:

Volda University College (VUC) is a university of applied science with app. 4500 students located in the town of Volda on the Norwegian West-Coast. How to proceed?

Application

The application deadline is 1 March 2022.

All applicants must submit two sets of application documents: One to the Norwegian Directorate for Higher Education and Skills and one to the Ministry of Science and Higher Education of the Russian Federation.

To be considered for a scholarship, all applicants must meet the requirements of both the Norwegian and Russian side.

HK-dir reserves the right to adjust the Scholarship Programme according to the Covid-19 situation.

To apply, please make the following steps:

- Fill in the electronic application form through HK-dir's online application and reporting system Espresso.
- Upload the required attachments from the Norwegian side (see below).
- Print a PDF copy of your application. A PDF of the application is available in section "Submit" under "Preview" in the online application form.
- Submit the electronic application form by 1 March 2022.
- Send the printed PDF copy of your application together with a set of required documents from the Russian side, as listed on the website <http://academicmobility.ru> to the Ministry of Science and Higher Education by 3 March 2022.

All documents in the application to HK-dir must be submitted in English or Scandinavian, in PDF format.

All applicants must submit a Statement of Purpose (motivation letter) in English together with the application which describe the personal motivation for choice of studies.

If the original language of the record is not English or Scandinavian, an official translation must be attached to the original document. The records in the original language must accompany the translation.

The application to HK-dir must be delivered electronically, through HK-dir's online application and reporting system Espresso.

The set of documents to the Ministry of Science and Higher Education of the Russian Federation must be submitted in paper and the documents must be provided in Russian language.

Mandatory attachments for the application to HK-dir:

- Upper secondary/high school certificate or transcript of records.
- Bachelor's and/or master's degree diploma and transcripts of records or equivalent.
- Proof of proficiency in English, e.g. IELTS or TOFEL report (if applicable)
- Proof of proficiency in Norwegian, e.g. results from Norskprøven or Test i Norsk etc. (Documented proficiency in Norwegian is only relevant if you apply for credit courses in Norwegian language and literature.)

Eligibility

Both students who are currently enrolled at a Russian higher education institution and academic staff/teachers at Russian higher education institutions are eligible for grants. All applicants must be Russian citizens to be eligible for grants. HK-dir refers to higher education institutions, students, and academic staff/teachers belonging to the internationally recognized territory of the Russian Federation.

Applicants must fulfil the announced language and educational requirements corresponding to the requirements set by each higher education institution.

Please contact HK-dir or the contact point at the relevant institution if you have any questions regarding eligibility.

What does the grant cover?

- The students will receive a monthly grant equivalent to the rate for Norwegian students at the Norwegian State Educational Loan Fund (“Lånekassen”). For the academic year 2022-2023, this will be around 11 450 Norwegian kroner per month (this rate may be raised by 2% in accordance with Lånekassen’s annual price adjustment).
- The students will normally be offered student accommodation, for which they pay the rent out of their grant (usually 2 500 – 4 500 Norwegian kroner monthly).
- The students will not pay tuition fees (except a semester fee of approximately 600 Norwegian kroner per semester).
- Travel and visa costs are not covered (ref. Article 6 in the agreement).

Assessment procedure

- The Ministry of Science and Higher Education of the Russian Federation assesses the documents required by the Russian side and nominates candidates for scholarships.
- HK-dir processes the applications submitted electronically in Espresso and the list of nominated candidates.
- The applications from nominated candidates are forwarded to the respective higher education institutions in Norway for final assessment and decision.
- The respective higher education institutions in Norway will inform you about the results of the selection process.
